BYLAWS
OF
WHISPERING PINES RV RESORT EAST,
A LAND CONDOMINIUM OWNERS ASSOCIATION, INC.

Article I
The Association

1.01 Identity. These are the Bylaws of Whispering Pines RV Resort East, a Land Condominium Owners Association, Inc., a not for profit corporation (the "Association"), which was formed under the Alabama Nonprofit Corporation Act, §10-3A-1, et seq., CODE OF ALABAMA, 1975, (the "Nonprofit Act") by filing the Certificate of Formation of Whispering Pines RV Resort East Condominium Association, Inc. (the "Certificate"), with the Office of the Judge of Probate of Baldwin County, Alabama. The Association has been organized for the purpose of providing for the acquisition, operation, management, maintenance, care, control and administration of the Property of Whispering Pines RV Resort East, a Land Condominium (the "Condominium"), pursuant to the provisions of the Alabama Uniform Condominium Act of 1991, §35-8A-101, et seq., CODE OF ALABAMA, 1975, (the "Condominium Act") and the Declaration of Condominium of Whispering Pines RV Resort East, a Land Condominium (the "Declaration"), as filed with the Office of the Judge of Probate of Baldwin County, Alabama, in accordance with the provisions of the Condominium Act. The terms capitalized herein shall be deemed to have the meanings set forth in the Declaration and the Condominium Act.

1.02 Principal Office. The principal office of the Association in the State of Alabama shall be located in Baldwin County, Alabama. The Association may have such other offices, either within or without the State of Alabama, as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the Association may require from time to time.

1.03 Registered Office. The registered office of the Association, required by the Nonprofit Act to be maintained in the State of Alabama, may be, but need not be, identical to the principal office in the State of Alabama, and the address of the registered office may be changed from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Article II
Membership

2.01 Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the Membership shall be held in the month of November at the date and time as to be determined by the Board of Directors for the purpose of electing directors, if the period of exclusive Developer control of the election of Members of the Board of Directors has ended, and in any event, for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. If the day fixed for the annual meeting shall be a legal holiday in the State of Alabama, such meeting shall be held on the next succeeding business day. If the election of directors shall not be held on the day designated herein for any annual meeting of the Membership, or at any adjournment thereof, the Board of Directors shall cause the election to be held at a special meeting of the Membership as soon thereafter as may be convenient.

2.02 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Membership, for any purpose or purposes, unless otherwise prescribed by statute, may be called by the President or by a majority of the Board of Directors and shall be called by the President or the Secretary at the request of holders of not less than twenty (20%) percent of all the outstanding votes of the Membership.

2.03 Place of Meeting. The Board of Directors may designate any place, within or without the State of Alabama, as the place of meeting for any annual meeting or for any special meeting of the Membership. If no designation is made, or if a special meeting is otherwise called, the place of the meeting shall be the principal office of the Association in the State of Alabama.

2.04 Notice of Meeting. Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of a special meeting, or of a meeting which is required by statute to be held for any special purpose, or of an annual meeting at which special action is to be taken, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, or the special action which is proposed to be taken, shall, unless otherwise prescribed by statute, be delivered not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary, or the persons calling the meeting, to each member of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail, addressed to the member at his address as it appears on the records of the Association, with postage thereon prepaid.

2.05 Fixing of Record Date. The Board of Directors may fix in advance a date as the record date for the purpose of determining the Members entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of Members or any adjournment thereof, or for any other proper purpose, such date in any case to be not more than thirty (30) days and, in case of a meeting of the Membership, not less than ten (10) days prior to the date on which the particular action requiring such determination of Members is to be taken. If no record date is fixed for the determination of Members entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of the Membership, the date on which notice of the meeting is mailed shall be the record date for such determination of Members. When a determination has been made, as provided in this section, such determination shall apply to any adjournment thereof.

2.06 Voting Lists. The officer or agent having charge of the records of Members of the Association shall make, at least ten (10) days before each meeting of the Membership, a complete list of the Members entitled to vote at such meeting, or any adjournment thereof, arranged in alphabetical order, with the address of each member and the number of votes to which he is entitled, which list, for a period of ten (10) days prior to such meeting, shall be kept on file at the principal office of the Association and shall be subject to inspection by any member making written request therefor at any time during usual business hours. Such list shall also be produced and kept open at the time and place of the meeting and shall be subject to the inspection of any member during the whole time of the meeting.

2.07 Quorum. The presence at any meeting of the Members entitled to cast twenty (20%) percent of the votes in the Association, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum. If a quorum is not present at any meeting, a majority of the Members so represented may adjourn the meeting and reconvene from time to time without further notice. At any such reconvened meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally notified. The Members present or represented at a meeting at which a quorum is present may continue to transact business until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough Members to leave less than a quorum.

2.08 Majority Vote. The vote of Members entitled to cast a majority of the votes represented at a meeting of the Membership at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Members of the Association, unless the vote of a greater number is required by law, the Declaration, the Articles, or these Bylaws.

2.09 Proxies. At all meetings of the Membership, a member may vote in person or by proxy executed in writing by the member or by his duly authorized attorney in fact. A proxy is void if it is not dated or purports to be revocable without notice. Such proxy shall be filed with the Secretary of the Association before or at the time of the meeting. No proxy shall be valid after one (1) year from the date of its execution, unless a shorter term is provided in the proxy.

2.10 Designation of Voting Members.

A. Designations. If a Unit is owned by more than one (1) person, the person entitled to cast the vote or votes for the Unit may be designated by a certificate signed by all of the record Owners of the Unit and filed with the Secretary of the Association. If a Unit is owned by a corporation, partnership, trust, company or other legal entity, the person entitled to cast the vote or votes for the Unit may be designated by a certificate of appointment signed by a duly authorized representative of the entity and filed with the Secretary of the Association. Such certificates shall be valid until revoked or until superseded by a subsequent certificate or until a change in the ownership of the Unit, and a certificate may be revoked by any Owner of an interest in the Unit. Any such revocation shall be in writing and signed by any Owner of an interest in the Unit or a duly authorized representative of the entity, as the case may be, and filed with the Secretary of the Association.

B. Failure to Designate. If a Unit is owned by more than one (1) person and such Owners do not designate a voting Member as required hereinabove, the following provisions shall apply:

i. If more than one (1) such Owner is present at any meeting, and said Owners are unable to concur on a decision on any subject requiring a vote, said Owners shall lose their right to vote on that subject at that meeting; however, said vote or votes shall be included in the determination of the presence of a quorum.

ii. If only one (1) such Owner is present at a meeting, such person attending shall be entitled to cast the vote or votes pertaining to the Unit.

iii. If more than one (1) such Owner is present at the meeting and said Owners concur, any one (1) such Owner may cast the vote or votes for the Unit.

2.11 Informal Action by Members. Any action required to be taken at a meeting of the Membership, or any other action which may be taken at a meeting of the Membership, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the Members entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof.

Article III
Board of Directors

3.01 General Powers. The affairs of the Association shall be managed by or under the direction of its Board of Directors.

3.02 Number, Tenure and Qualifications. The Board of Directors shall consist of three (3) to five (5) directors as to be determined by the Members at the Annual Meeting of the Association. Each director shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the Members and until his successor shall have been duly elected and shall have qualified or until his death or until he shall have resigned or shall have been removed, as provided for herein. A director need not be a member of the Association.

3.03 Election of Directors.

A. General Election Procedure. Election of directors entitled to be elected by the Members shall be held at the annual meeting, or, if required in accordance with subparagraph 3.03(B) below, at a special meeting of the Membership. The election shall be by secret ballot (unless dispensed with by unanimous consent) and by a plurality of the votes cast. The Owner of each whole Unit shall be entitled to cast his votes for each of as many nominees as there are vacancies to be filled at the time of the election. There shall be no cumulative voting.

B. Developer Control. Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph 3.03(A) above, or anything in these Bylaws to the contrary, the Developer (as defined in the Declaration), its successors and assigns, and not the Members of the Association, shall have the exclusive right to control the Association by electing all of the Members of the Board of Directors of the Association, and in the event of vacancies, the Developer shall fill such vacancies, until such time as either (i) the expiration of sixty (60) days following the conveyance of seventy-five percent (75%) of the Units in the Condominium to purchasers of Units other than Developer, or (ii) the expiration of two (2) years from the date the Developer has ceased to offer Units for sale in the ordinary course of business, or (iii) the Developer elects by written notice to the Association, at its option, to terminate such control of the Association, whichever first occurs; provided, however, and in limitation of the foregoing, no later than ninety (90) days after conveyance of twenty-five percent (25%) of the Units, Members of the Association, other than the Developer, shall be entitled to elect twenty-five percent (25%) of the Members of the Board and not later than ninety (90) days after conveyance of fifty percent (50%) of the Units to Members other than Developer, not less than thirty-three and one-third percent (33 1/3%) of the Members of the Board shall be elected by the Members of the Association other than the Developer. The Developer shall be entitled to elect at least one member of the Board of Directors as long as the Developer holds for sale in the ordinary course of business at least five percent (5%) of the Units in the Condominium and such right is not violative of the then provisions of the Condominium Act. Within sixty (60) days before the date of termination of control of the Association by the Developer, the Board of Directors shall call and give not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) days' notice of a special meeting of the Membership for the purpose of electing the Members of the Board of Directors.

3.04 Regular Meetings. A regular meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held without other notice immediately after, and at the same place as, the annual meeting of the Membership; provided, however, any such regular meeting may be held at any other time or place which shall be specified in a notice given as hereinafter provided for special meetings, or in a consent and waiver of notice thereof, signed by all directors. The Board of Directors may provide, by resolution, the time and place, within or without the State of Alabama, for the holding of additional regular meetings without other notice than such resolution.

3.05 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by or at the request of the President or a majority of directors.

3.06 Notice. Notice of any special meeting shall be given at least three (3) days prior thereto by written notice delivered personally or mailed to each director at his business address, by U.S. mail or private carrier. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail so addressed, with postage thereon prepaid. If notice be given by private carrier, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when the notice is delivered to the private carrier. Any director may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

3.07 Quorum. A majority of the number of directors determined in the manner fixed by subparagraph 3.02 of this Article III shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board of Directors, but if less than such majority is present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice. If a quorum is present when the meeting is convened, the directors present may continue to do business, taking action by a vote of the majority of a quorum, until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough directors to leave less than a quorum present, or the refusal of any director present to vote.

3.08 Manner of Acting. The act of the majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors.

3.09 Action Without a Meeting. Any action that may be taken by the Board of Directors at a meeting may be taken without a meeting if a consent, in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the directors.

3.10 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors and any directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of directors may be filled by a majority of the remaining directors, except as otherwise provided in this Article III. A director elected or appointed, as the case may be, shall be elected or appointed for the unexpired term of his predecessor in office.

3.11 Committees. The Board of Directors may, by resolution or resolutions, passed by a majority of the whole Board, designate one or more committees, each of which shall consist of at least two (2) directors and which, to the extent provided in said resolution or resolutions or in these Bylaws shall have and may exercise all of the powers of the Board of Directors in the management of the activities and affairs of the Association and may have power to authorize the seal of the Association to be affixed to all papers which may require it, except that no such committee shall have the authority of the Board of Directors in reference to the following:

- i. Amending, altering, or repealing these Bylaws;
- ii. Electing, appointing, or removing any member of any such committee or any director or officer of the Association;
- iii. Amending the Articles, restating the Articles, adopting a plan of merger or adopting a plan of consolidation with another corporation;
- iv. Authorizing the sale, lease, exchange, or mortgage of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the Association;
- v. Authorizing the voluntary dissolution of the Association or revoking proceedings therefor; adopting a plan for the distribution of assets of the Association;
- vi. Amending, altering, or repealing any action or resolution of the Board of Directors which by its terms provides that it shall not be amended, altered, or repealed by such committee. The designation of such committee or committees or the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors or any individual director of any responsibility imposed upon it or him by law.

3.12 Resignations. Any director of the Association may resign at any time, either by oral tender of resignation at any meeting of the Board or by giving written notice thereof to the Secretary of the Association. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therefore, and the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

3.13 Place of Meeting. The Board of Directors may designate any place within or without the State of Alabama as the place of meeting for any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors.

3.14 Presumption of Assent. A director of the Association who is present at a meeting of the Board of Directors at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless his dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless he shall file his written dissent to such action with the person acting as the Secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or shall forward such dissent by registered mail to the Secretary of the Association immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a director who voted in favor of such action.

Article IV Officers

4.01 Number. The officers of the Association shall be a President, one or more Vice President(s) (the number thereof to be determined by the Board of Directors), a Secretary, and a Treasurer, each of whom shall be elected by the Board of Directors. Such other officers and assistant officers as may be deemed necessary may be elected or appointed by the Board of Directors. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person, except the President and Secretary. An officer need not be a member of the Association. The failure of the Board of Directors to elect any officers other than a President, a Treasurer and a Secretary shall not constitute a violation of these Bylaws.

4.02 Election and Term of Office. The officers of the Association to be elected by the Board of Directors shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors at the first meeting of the Board of Directors held after each annual meeting of the Membership. If the election of officers shall not be held at such meeting, such election shall be held as soon thereafter as may be convenient. Each officer shall hold office until his successor shall have been duly elected and shall have qualified or until his death or until he shall have resigned or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

4.03 Removal. Any officer or agent elected or appointed by the Board of Directors may be removed at any time, by the affirmative vote of the Board of Directors, whenever in their judgment the best interests of the Association will be served thereby. Any such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed. Election or appointment of an officer shall not of itself create any contract rights in favor of such officer.

4.04 Vacancies. A vacancy in any office elected or appointed by the Board of Directors because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification or otherwise, may be filled by the Board of Directors for the unexpired portion of the term.

4.05 President. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Association and, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, shall in general supervise and control all of the business and affairs of the Association. He shall preside at all meetings of the Membership. He may sign, with the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board of Directors has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board of Directors or by these Bylaws to some other officer or agent of the Association, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed; and in general, shall perform all duties incident to the office of President and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors from time to time.

4.06 Vice President. In the absence of the President or in the event of his death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President (or in the event there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in the order designated at the time of their election, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their election) shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. Any Vice President shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the President or by the Board of Directors.

4.07 Secretary. The Secretary shall: (a) keep the minutes of the proceedings of the Members and of the Board of Directors in one or more books provided for the purpose; (b) see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws or as required by law; (c) be custodian of the corporate records and of the seal of the Association and see that the seal of the Association is affixed to all documents the execution of which on behalf of the Association under its seal is duly authorized; (d) keep a register of the mailing address of each member which shall be furnished to the Secretary by such member; (e) have general charge of the transfer books of the Members of the Association; and (f) in general perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the President or by the Board of Directors.

4.08 Treasurer. The Treasurer shall: (a) have charge and custody of and be responsible for all funds and securities of the Association; (b) receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Association from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Association in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Article V of these Bylaws; and (c) in general perform all of the duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the President or by the Board of Directors. If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of his duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board of Directors shall determine.

Article V Contracts, Loans, Checks and Deposits

5.01 Contracts. The Board of Directors may authorize any officer or officers, agent or agents to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the Association, and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

5.02 Loans. No loans shall be contracted on behalf of the Association and no evidences of indebtedness shall be issued in its name unless authorized by a resolution of the Board of Directors. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

5.03 Checks, Drafts, Etc. All checks, drafts or other orders for the payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the Association, shall be signed by such officer or officers, agent or agents of the Association and in such manner as shall from time to time be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors.

5.04 Deposits. All funds of the Association not otherwise employed shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of the Association in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as the Board of Directors may select.

5.05 Proxies. Unless otherwise provided by resolution of the Board of Directors, the President may from time to time appoint an attorney or agent of the Association, in the name and on behalf of the Association, to cast the votes which the Association may be entitled to cast as the holder of stock or other securities in any other corporation any of whose stock or other securities may be held by the Association, at meetings of the holders of the stock or other securities of such other corporation, or to consent in writing, in the name and on behalf of the Association, as such holder, to any action by such other corporation, and may instruct the person or persons so appointed as to the manner of casting such votes or giving such consent, and may execute or cause to be executed, in the name and on behalf of the Association and under its corporate seal or otherwise, all such written proxies or other instruments as he may deem necessary or proper in the premises.

Article VI Books and Records

6.01 Accounting. The Association shall keep correct and complete books and records of account and shall keep minutes of the proceedings of the Members, Board of Directors and committees thereof and shall keep at its registered or principal office in Alabama a record of the names and addresses of the Members entitled to vote for directors and officers. The accounting records shall be maintained in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. All books and records of the Association shall be open to inspection by the Members or their authorized representatives for any proper purpose at any reasonable time in Baldwin County, Alabama. Such records shall include:

A. Association Accounts. The receipts and expenditures of the Association shall be credited and charged to the appropriate account as set forth below.

i. Current Expenses. All funds to be expended during the year for the maintenance of the Common Elements and Limited Common Elements (as defined in the Declaration) and the operation and working capital of the Association shall be held in the Current Expense Account. Any balance in this fund at the end of each year may be used to pay Common Expenses and Limited Expenses incurred in any successive year or may be placed in the Reserve Fund Account.

ii. Reserve Funds. All funds to be expended for replacement, acquisition and repair of capital improvements which are a part of Common Elements and Limited Common Elements shall be held in the Reserve Fund Account.

B. Member Accounts. An account for each member shall be maintained setting forth the name and address of the member, the interest percentage in the Common Elements and Limited Common Elements, if any, the amount of each assessment, the amounts and dates on which the assessments become due, the amounts paid upon the account and the balance due.

6.02 Budget. At least ninety (90) days prior to the beginning of each calendar year, the Board of Directors shall adopt a proposed budget for each calendar year that shall include the estimated funds required to defray the Common Expenses and Limited Common Expenses and to provide and maintain funds for the foregoing accounts and reserves according to good accounting practices. Within thirty (30) days of adoption of the proposed budget, copies of the budget and proposed assessments shall be transmitted to each member of the Association and a date set for a meeting of the Members to consider ratification of the budget, not less than fourteen (14) days nor more than thirty (30) days after delivery of the budget to the Members. Unless, at the meeting, a majority of all Members present in person or by proxy reject the budget, the budget is ratified, whether or not a quorum is present. In the event the proposed budget is rejected, the budget for the last year shall continue in effect until such time as a new budget is ratified.

6.03 Assessments. Subject to the terms and conditions of the Declaration, assessments against the Members for their shares of the items of the budget shall be made for the calendar year annually in advance on or before December 31, preceding the year for which the assessments are made. Such assessments shall be due in quarterly or monthly installments, as may be determined by the Board of Directors. In the event the annual assessment proves to be insufficient, the budget and assessments may be amended at any time by the Board of Directors. Such assessments shall constitute a lien as provided for in the Declaration.

6.04 Special Assessments. Subject to the terms and conditions of the Declaration, assessments for Common Expenses that cannot be paid from the annual assessments for Common Expenses shall be made only after notice of the need for such is given to the Members concerned, and it shall be due thirty (30) days after such notice in such manner as the Board of Directors may require in the notice of assessment. Such assessments shall constitute a lien as provided for in the Declaration.

6.05 Audit or Compilation. An audit or compilation of the accounts of the Association shall be made annually by a certified public accountant, and a copy of the audit report shall be made available for examination by each member in Baldwin County, Alabama.

6.06 Bonds. Fidelity bonds shall be required by the Board of Directors from all persons handling or responsible for Association funds. The amount of such bonds shall be determined by the Board of Directors, but shall not be less than the sum of three (3) months' assessments for Common Assessments and Limited Common Assessments on all Units plus the reserve funds of the Association, if any. The premiums of such bonds shall be paid by the Association.

6.07 Rules and Regulations and Violation of any Documents. Subject to the terms and conditions of the Declaration, the Board of Directors may, from time to time, establish, abolish or amend reasonable rules and regulations concerning the use of the Condominium Property; provided, however, that a majority of the Members may overrule the Board with respect to any such rules and regulations or modification thereof, or amendments, or additions thereto. The text of such rules and regulations shall be furnished or made available to the Members not less than fourteen (14) days prior to the effective date thereof. The Board shall have the power, upon violation of the rules and regulations, or upon violation of the terms of the Declaration or these Bylaws to impose monetary fines on a member which shall constitute a lien and shall be enforceable in like manner as provided for assessments or to suspend for a reasonable period of time either the member's right to the use of common facilities within the Common Elements or the member's right to vote. No rule or regulation that is in conflict with the Condominium Documents shall be adopted.

Article VII
Waiver of Notice

Whenever any notice is required to be given to any member or director of the Association under the provisions of these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, the Declaration, the provisions of the Nonprofit Act, and any act amendatory thereof, supplementary thereto or substituted therefor, the provisions of the Condominium Act, and any act amendatory thereof, supplemental thereto or substituted therefor, or the Alabama Constitution, a waiver thereof in writing, signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice.

Article VIII
Fiscal Year

The fiscal year of the Association shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Article IX
Indemnification

The Association shall have the right to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Association. The indemnification provided for herein shall not be deemed exclusive of and shall be in addition to any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of Members or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Article X
Amendment

10.01 Amendment to Bylaws. These Bylaws may be amended, altered, or repealed in the following manner:

A. By the Board. By the Board of Directors for such period of time as the Developer has the right to elect at least a majority of the Members of the Board of Directors of the Association in accordance with subparagraph 3.03(B) of Article III hereof and thereafter,

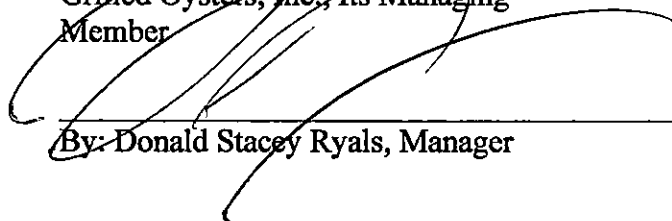

B. By the Members. By the Members at any regular or special meeting upon the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than sixty-seven percent (67%) of the outstanding votes present and entitled to vote at such meeting in person or represented by proxy, at which a quorum is present.

10.02 Recordation. No modification or amendment to these Bylaws shall be valid and effective until the President and Secretary of the Association shall certify as to the adoption of such amendment and shall file their certificate setting forth the text of the amendment with the Office of the Judge of Probate of Baldwin County, Alabama.
